

1

Insulin resistance rises:

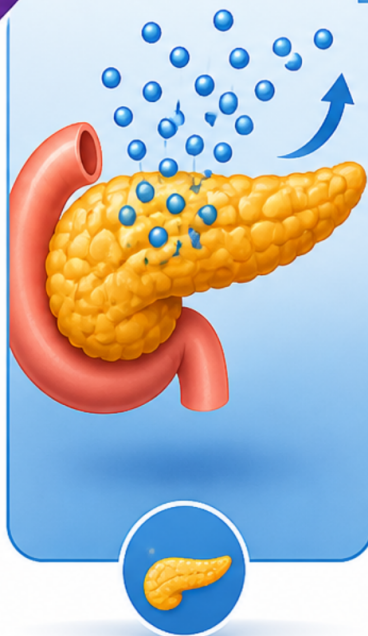

Cells become less responsive to insulin

2

Pancreas compensates:

The pancreas works harder and produces more insulin

3

Glucose rises:

Blood glucose increases as compensation fails

4

Diagnosis arrives late:

By T2D diagnosis, 50-70% of pancreatic islet cells may no longer function

